MARRIAGE SUPPER

Revelation 19:6-11

I was recently studying the Marriage Supper in the Bible. Oh, how our hearts were warmed. I noticed that we would have on a garment of fine linen, which is the righteousness of Christ. I cannot imagine a place where we will be perfect in words, deeds, and thoughts. "No More Flesh" What a day that will be! I also saw in my study in Matthew that there was a man without a wedding garment on. He was thrown out into outer darkness where there was weeping and gnashing of teeth. I see right away that everyone will not be at this supper. If you have never been declared righteous by the death and blood of Christ, seek Him today. Don't miss this supper. What a day it will be, When My Jesus I will see; I will look upon His face, the one who saved me by His grace!

MULTIPLIED SONS

We rejoice daily in the way the Lord has chosen to bless and lead in the lives of our family.

John, Ali, Zoe, and Levi have had an active year. Zoe will enter the first grade at Westminster Christian School in the fall. Levi is growing (20 mos.) and we are already dreading him going to school, which will end our Friday visits with him. Chuck, Julie, Abby, Megan, Charlie, and Claire (born in Dec.) are ready for their summer vacation as well. Abby will be in second grade and Megan in K-5. Their mother continues to do a tremendous job with their homeschooling. Joseph, Sabrina, Noah and Georgia have made the largest move this year. Joe accepted the pastorate of Reformed Baptist Church in Virginia Beach, Va. They are now moved and settled and enjoying all that God has chosen to bless them with. This includes another new family member, which is due December 1. (This makes 9 grandchildren in 8 years! Whew!)
